

I like the way the state Telephone Privacy Laws have worked out for us. We can actually eat supper now without being interrupted 3 or 4 times by solicitors calling! It has greatly reduced annoying and unwanted calls from about 10 in a week to none. I do not support the FCC wanting to override the State laws that have been in effect. It has been a WONDERFUL thing!